AE Wealth Management investment adviser representatives may receive bonus payments from an insurance company for selling a targeted number of annuities during a specified period of time which creates a conflict of interest. AE Wealth Management investment adviser representatives may also receive bonuses based on their overall assets under management during a specific period of time. These bonuses may include cash payments and/or qualification for networking and business trips. These benefits are not a result of achieving sales quotas related to specific product lines. This presents a conflict of interest which AE Wealth Management addresses by providing disclosures, following procedures and the firm's fiduciary obligation to each client.
