ITEM 4- OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Joel Nesbitt holds an insurance license to sell insurance products through Capital A Insurance, LLC, a licensed insurance agency. It is anticipated that a small portion, less than (10%) of his time, will be spent providing these insurance products. He will receive compensation from selling insurance products and therefore receive economic benefit for this activity. This activity may create a conflict of interests with clients. The client is under no obligation to purchase insurance through Joel Nesbitt on a commissionable basis. To address this, disclosure is made to the client at the time purchase is made, identifying the nature of the transaction or relationship, the role to be played and any compensation to be paid by the client and/or received by the insurance agent. Clients have the right to decide whether to act on the recommendation and the right to purchase any insurance products through the insurance agent of their choice. The Firm and its Investment Adviser Representative will always act in the best interest of the client.

ITEM 5- ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Joel Nesbitt does not receive additional compensation beyond the scope of his role as your investment adviser representative and items listed in Item 4.

ITEM 6- SUPERVISION

Joel Nesbitt is supervised through a compliance program designed to prevent and detect violations of the federal and state securities laws. Supervision is conducted by the Chief Compliance Officer, Michael D. Richards, Jr., who is responsible for administering the policies and procedures. As Chief Compliance Officer Mr. Richards reviews those policies and procedures annually for their adequacy and the effectiveness of their implementation. All policies and procedures of the firm are followed. Michael D. Richards, Jr. may be reached at (724) 658-421.
